CV / Shani Adi

I'm a designer with a focus on branding, ux/ui, and web design. I also enjoy print, motion, package design, and pretty much anything else. One of my strengths is my versatility, I can adapt my style to suit the needs of each client. Every design I develop is based on extensive research, brand values, graphic techniques, and storytelling.

I come up with solutions and i know how to make things happen.
